Confessions of a Christian Physician.

By Raymond West

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 408 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 1.1in. Heres a Doctor who can write. Ray West, a self-confessed understudy of the Great healer, Jesus Christ chronicles in CONFESSIONS Incidents from three or more decades of medical practice. In a chatty style reminiscent of James Herriots vignettes based on his veterinary practice, West introduces graphic events revealing the underside as well as the drama of interacting with patients, their family members and colleagues. Edna Maye Loveless, Esteemed Author and Educator Dr. Raymond West, a master storyteller and model of the ideal Family Physician (as well as teacher and researcher of Epidemiology) describes highlights of his career applying the basic principles of both science and art of medical practice. Examples of encounters from his years of successful caring for the emotional and spiritual as well as physical needs of patients, demonstrate for the reader, memorable examples of principles applicable to real life. Whether you are a medical care provider or a patient, you will love the stories and benefit from the inspiration of a Christ centered approach to the practice of medicine. Edwin H. Krick, MD, MPH. , Associate professor of Medicine, Loma Linda University Doctor...
