RELIGION AND SCIENTIFIC NATURALISM

State University of New York Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 364 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.6in. x 0.8in. Articulates a metaphysical position capable of rendering both science and religious experience simultaneously and mutually intelligible. In this book, David Ray Griffin argues that the perceived conflict between science and religion is based upon a double mistake-the assumption that religion requires supernaturalism and that scientific naturalism requires atheism and materialism. Religion and Scientific Naturalism argues with considerable sophistication that the source of...

Reviews

This publication can be well worth a study, and far better than other. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been printed in an exceedingly simple way and it is only soon after i finished reading through this book in which really transformed me, alter the way in my opinion.
