Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Poems and Paragraphs The Poems of Robert Elliott Gonzales presented here, with one or two exceptions, appeared first in The Carolinian and The Garnet and Black, the student publications of the University of South Carolina; the paragraphs have been selected from the editorial column which for nearly five years he conducted in The State. Many of the poems were composed hurriedly as fillers for The Carolinian, to which he contributed frequently both prose and verse, while all the paragraphs were written in the quick rush of daily newspaper work. Many of the cleverest paragraphs have been omitted from this collection because - so rapidly does the world move, the subjects have passed away, or the incidents which gave them point are no longer in the public mind. In these poems and paragraphs are revealed the versatile attainments of a mind which leaped in an instant from graceful poetic imagery to the current slang of the ball field; from classic forum to the arena of modern politics; from the mythical lore of the shadowy past to the insistent realities of today. The quaint and kindly philosophy, the spontaneous humor, the shrewd and subtle wit, and the rare gift of epigrammatic expression, were tempered by an infinite human sympathy which sought to cheer and help rather than hurt his fellows, - a generous nature which so controlled and directed the keen shafts of the mind that, with the power to wound and often the provocation, yet touched so charitably the follies and foibles of mankind that he left no sting. In this fine chivalric spirit he volunteered as a private soldier, and in his country's service...
