

The Hawarden Visitors Hand-Book (Illustrated Edition) (Dodo Press)

By William Henry Gladstone

Dodo Press, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .William Henry Gladstone (1840-1892) was a British Liberal Party Member of Parliament, and the eldest son of Prime Minister William Ewart Gladstone. He was born in Hawarden, Flintshire. He attended Eton College and read Greek and Latin at Christ Church, Oxford University. He was a Member of Parliament for a total of 20 years, representing Chester for three, Whitby for 12 and East Worcestershire for five. A singer and organist, he was well versed in musical history, especially the development of Anglican church music. He wrote on musical topics, and one of the views he expressed was that choral church services were to be deplored because the choirs often discourage the congregations from singing. He wrote the anthems Gracious and Righteous and Withdraw Not Thou, and chants, anthems, introits and organ voluntaries. He composed the hymn tune Hammersmith which can be used for the hymn Dear Lord and Father of Mankind. Hawarden, in Flintshire, lies 6 miles West of Chester, at a height of 250 feet, overlooking a large tract of Cheshire and the Estuary of the...

READ ONLINE
[8.79 MB]

Reviews

Certainly, this is actually the very best job by any author. It really is rally exciting through studying time. You may like how the blogger write this pdf.

-- Rudolph Jones MD

Completely essential go through ebook. I was able to comprehended almost everything using this created e pdf. You will not sense monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for relating to if you request me).

-- Timmothy Schulist