Comparing the increase which had taken place in subjected and non-subjected districts, the utmost effect which might be attributed to the suspension was that, of a strength of 40,000, there had been 27 additional admissions per week. Without further information as to the stations from which troops had lately come--Egypt, for instance--it was impossible to say how much disease was to be ascribed to the change which had been made. Some part of the increase, however, might be explained by the circumstances surrounding the removal of troops to different places. He would not, therefore, give an assurance that the same practice would have been adopted if the Besolution had not been passed. With respect to the last Question of the noble Lord, undoubtedly there would be no departmental negligence during the Becess on the part of the Executive. Lord EUSTACE CECIL asked whether the Government would allow local authorities, upon application, to have the assistance of the Metropolitan Police? Mr. GLADSTONE asked that Notice might be given of the Question. HARBOUR AT DOVER-CONVICT LABOUR. Mr. W. H. SMITH asked the Secretary of State for the Home Department, If he is in a position to lay upon the Table Plans and Estimates of the proposed Harbour at Dover to be carried out by convict labour, in a form to enable the House to form a judgment upon the scheme, before a Vote is taken for the Convict Prison to be built at Dover? Sir...
