It is like nothing in the heavens above, or the earth beneath, or the waters under the earth. Some college friend once said to a fellow student of missionary birth, How is it that you missionary boys always seem to know each other. It seems to make no difference whether you come from the Sandwich Islands, China, India, Turkey or Africa, you are at once as familiar as if you had known each other all your lives. It is one of the privileges of the missionary birthright, was the answer; Nowhere is that birthright realized more fully than at these conferences. Distinctions of denomination and even of field are largely forgotten, are certainly never emphasized. One missionary said that, for all he could see, all present might belong to the American Baptist Missionary Union, and that was the only hint of his church connection. All are one in the great work. Another feature is the quiet,...
