The plan outlined has been tested beyond the experimental stage, as the major portion of it has been used for considerably over a year on the Salt River project, and for several months on the Yuma, Carlsbad, and Truckee-Carson projects, and is producing most excellent results. Most of our labors, therefore, have been confined to studying conditions on the projects on which construction work is being carried or is contemplated. While experience will probably suggest improvements in matters of detail, and it may be found that certain instructions will be difficult of execution, and certain blanks and forms may require modification, in the main the general principles outlined are thought to be correct, and to be what is needed to collect the desired data.
