Now precisely these are the three stages of devotional Bible study, and such study is not complete until these three stages have been effected. This is the one study of the Bible which calls into use all our powers, First the intellect must perceive the truth, then the affections glow around it, then the will moved by it goes out in earnest result. I am afraid we do not know very much about devotional Bible study; I am afraid we do not pursue it as much as would be good for us. It takes time to study the Bible devotionally. You may use your intellect for the purpose of obtaining knowledge, and obtain knowledge with a minimum of personal exercise, there are so many helps and so many channels through which information can flow; but to study devotionally we must not only receive information, but...
