It might be hard for you to understand this being an outsider; but South Africa holds the souls of its sons and daughters in an almost inescapable gasp. History cast all of us in a strange and gripping drama, but I had deserted the stage. I had no idea what my role was, and felt I would never be whole until I found out! - fine writing by Rian Malan in his compelling book MY TRAITORS HEART How a South African became politically aware. . . The journey of my political awakening Thanks, once again, Madiba for all you have done for the always beloved country (as well as for the licence with my title) This little e-book of memories is for you and all South Africans (written in the very dark days of June 1992) Reflections on my very privileged journey born under Apartheid I was born in 1950, two years before the National Party won the election in South Africa and imposed the harshest racial legislation the world has ever known. Here is the story of my journey and the first stirrings of my political awakening. . . This work is also dedicated to all those people who over the years fought for a free and democratic South Africa. It is especially dedicated to those who made the supreme sacrifice in paying with their lives, the supreme sacrifice. Ill only name a few: people like Steve Biko, Neil Aggett, David Webster, Abdul Timol and Hector Petersen, the schoolboy and the first shot dead in the Soweto uprising of 1976. It is especially dedicated to all those people who have suffered under the OLD SOUTH AFRICA of racism and oppression....
