Serpent s Kiss Franca Marshall, a promising post-graduate student from the UK, is on study leave in Italy when she meets Zmey Ballotini, the eldest son of a local noble family. Franca is completing her thesis on the Etruscan civilization and is taking part in a small archaeological dig, in the grounds of Villa di Castello, the ancestral home of the Ballotini family. They meet by accident in the last week of Franca s stay, and quickly embark on a passionate romance. Zmey s family is powerful, and unknown to Franca, Zmey is hiding a dark and sinister secret. By day, Zmey is a charming and boisterous lover, but by night, he is confined to his room in the Villa, transforming in the light of the full moon into a dragon of terrifying ferocity and greed. Dismayed by her failure to find anything...
