Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Vocational Schools The increase in the quantity of manual, household and agricultural arts instruction has been remarkable. The fact that credits are allowed without examination imposes a responsibility. Fortunately, practically every teacher who has been licensed to teach these subjects has been specially prepared for his work in some professional institution or its equivalent; otherwise the practice of allowing credit without examination might result in a lowering of educational standards. Outside of New York City there are now 109 teachers giving instruction in homemaking to 17,113 girls in the upper grades of the grammar school and in the high school. In the same territory there are now 68 teachers giving instruction in manual arts to 13,320 pupils in the upper grades of the grammar school and in the high school. The Intermediate Industrial School The plan as now operating provides that five-twelfths of the school program shall be given over to shop, laboratory and drawing instruction and that the remaining seven-twelfths be devoted to book studies, which practically amounts to saying that the pupils shall...
