Then the King held a glorious Court, Of Bellyn he nor cared nor thought, But made twelve jovial feast-days fair, To pacify the Wolf and Bear. They kept it up with dance and song, And no one found twelve days too long. IS told how to this glorious feast Came every bird and every beast, From the great Hippopotamus, Down to the Mus ridiculus. From east and west, from south and north, XXIV. Joy rules the Host. XXIV. Joy In all their glory came they forth, rules the And danced like mad upon the green, I-So merrily as ne er was seen. In the merry hove dance See the Elephant prance As lissom and light as a fawn, While to minstrelly sweet Twinkle thousands of feet From twilight till grey streaky dawn. 2. The...
