

Revenge Is Personal

By MR Roger Stuart Smith

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When he learns of the death of an old friend Matt Shepherd decides to attend the funeral service despite having been out of the country for over twenty years following an operation in Helsinki to recover stolen NATO documents which had nearly gone disastrously wrong because of his serious error of judgement. That together with the death of his wife whilst away had resulted in him questioning his capabilities and priorities and resigning he had walked away from his old life and friends preferring his own company and the occasional bottle. Whilst at the crematorium he meets up with Don Collins who had been his partner in Helsinki and discovers that he now heads a secret Government Department. Collins shows him positive proof that his friend had not drowned in an accident on Menorca as reported but had actually been murdered by a clandestine group that deals in anything ranging from gun running and drugs right through to promoting international terrorism. Finding out the friendship between the two men and knowing that Shepherd is probably his last chance...
